

La Casita Program Center

Location: 150 Pomello Drive, Claremont, CA 91711

Description: Program Center

La Casita Program Center is a single story adobe brick structure, circa 1947, nestled against a hillside at the base of the Claremont Hills Wilderness Park on a semi-rural five-acre site. There are homes approximately two blocks away; otherwise, the property surroundings are rustic. The building is approximately 1,200 sq. ft. and features a recently renovated kitchen, ADA compliant restroom, meeting room, fireplace, and concrete exterior patio.

The campgrounds feature a covered patio, fire pit, and BBQ pit, though the site would benefit from a design plan to maximize exterior program value. The site lends itself to Troop meetings, hiking, outdoor camping and council programs and trainings.
