

Let the Countdown to 100 begin!

In 2012, Girl Scouts of the USA will mark 100 years of inspiring girls and young women with the ideals of courage, confidence and character. Millions of active Girl Scouts, volunteers and alumnae will come together to celebrate.

Will you be among them?

We are so excited about the things we have planned and are currently in the process of building committees. We invite you to participate in what promises to be an extraordinary year of events and activities.

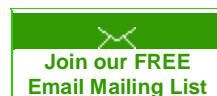

Welcome!

This is a special 100th Anniversary e-newsletter to keep you updated monthly on details and opportunities. However, you must "opt in" by January 2011 to keep receiving it. Come 2011, only those that have opted to receive the 100th Anniversary News, will.*

If you have not already, to opt in:

1. Click on "update your profile" at the bottom of this email
2. Check the box marked 100th Anniversary
3. Save the change

If you received this as a forwarded email, create your new profile by clicking the button to the right.

Also, you can visit the 100th Anniversary page on our fabulous new website at www.girlscoutsla.org with the latest information.

*Do not "opt out" of this email unless you want to be deleted completely from all GSGLA communications. If you do not want to receive 100th updates, do nothing and the 100th Anniversary News emails will cease after December.

Here are a few ways you can help today!

 GSGLA is searching for a filmmaker, producer, or director to help create an "I Am A Girl Scout" video for the 100th Anniversary -- pro bono! Are you or do you know of someone with industry know-how who can help? If so, contact Kenya Yarbrough at kyarbrough@girlscoutsla.org for more information.

 Do you know an inspiring woman? A business maven? A musical maestro? A teacher? A skydiver? An engineer? Was she a Girl Scout? Ask the amazing women in your life if they were ever a Daisy, Brownie, etc. If they were, you can nominate them to be a GSGLA Woman of Distinction. Nomination opportunities coming soon.
