

Outgoing Girl Scout Bronze Award Guidelines

The Girl Scout Bronze Award has four requirements. To receive the award, a Junior Girl Scout must complete the first three before undertaking the Girl Scout Bronze Award project.

1. Earn two badges related to the Girl Scout Bronze Award project.
2. Complete one of the Girl Scout Signs found in the Junior Girl Scout Handbook.
3. Earn the Junior Aide Award, the Girl Scout Junior Leadership Award, or two of these badges:
  - Girl Scouting in the USA
  - Girl Scouting Around the World
  - Girl Scouting in My Future
  - Lead On
4. Complete a Girl Scout Bronze Award project that demonstrates both the leadership skills she has learned as a Girl Scout Junior and a commitment to her community. The project must show she understands and lives by the Girl Scout Promise and Law. The project should:
  - Take about 15 hours to complete (including planning time), with the project itself taking at least seven to eight hours.
  - Follow the Action Plan in the "Adventures in Girl Scouting" chapter of the Junior Girl Scout Handbook (2001).
  - Provide community service either inside or outside of Girl Scouting.

For more information, see the Junior Girl Scout Handbook.

Tips

- Read the Girl Scout Bronze Award project requirements before deciding on a project.
- Work closely with a Girl Scout leader or advisor to complete the requirements.
- Follow all national and council guidelines for fund raising.
- Follow all guidelines in Safety-Wise.
- Document personal work and hours put into the project, if done in a group.
- Recruit an advisor with special skills for the project—a leader or the council can help.
- Choose only a new service project to fulfill requirements. Projects previously completed are not accepted.
