Ready to take your experienced hikers on a more advanced trip? Expert trainers will teach adults the essentials of helping Girl Scouts venture into remote wilderness areas, carrying all camping gear on their backs. This is the next step in progression after several long day hikes, with the intent of spending one or more nights outdoors, away from urban areas. The trip will be led by volunteer GSGLA Adult Educators who are experienced backpackers and trained in Wilderness and Remote First Aid (WRFA). This is actual overnight backpacking trip to a backcountry destination where you will practice skills needed for leading a trip with your troop.

Adults & Troop Leaders

Packs and Pops Backpacking Summit

Open to all experienced, brand-new, and future backpackers! The GSGLA Backpacking Team welcomes parents, leaders, and Junior/Cadette/Senior/Ambassador Girl Scouts (troops & individual girls) to meet experienced backpackers for an afternoon of fun, friendship, and popsicles! Learn about the amazing backpacking trips other Girl Scouts have done in GSGLA, see backpacking gear and demos, meet our GSGLA trainers, and get excited to plan new trips in 2023. Note: This is a troop and/or individual girl event where girls must attend with their leader or a parent/guardian, and follow all guidelines for the appropriate adult-to-girl ratio.
