

Give for the GIRL

GET GIRLS OUTDOORS

STORIES

Thanks to the collective power of our Girl Scout community, Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles raised funds to underwrite Outdoor Adventure Day and Overnight Camp Experiences for girls from underserved communities. This means more girls throughout Greater Los Angeles will have the chance to experience the great outdoors, learn to rock climb, zip line through the forest, and cook over a campfire. Take a look at these reasons why GSGLA donors give for the GIRL!

STORIES

“I was a leader for 12 years, 6 yrs with two troops. It is about empowering girls - providing an environment of, and opportunity for growth, challenge, kinship, fun, helping each other, seeing need in others.”

*-Takako Taketa,

“So every girl can experience the beauty of sleeping under the stars!”

*-Cathy French,

“I’m grateful to the Girl Scouts for giving my daughter the opportunity to experience the camaraderie and outdoor activities with her peers in an environment that strengthens a young girls self-esteem, while also building on their character, in addition to being positive role models within their community.”

-Luther Medina, Parent of a Girl Scout

“To enjoy the out-of-doors as only can be done at beautiful Camp Lakota. Whether watching the stars, singing around a campfire or any of the great activities. Here is hoping that this wonderful camp will be enjoyed for years to come by countless Girl Scouts!”

*-Joelynn Gil
GSGLA Volunteer*

“Having outdoor experiences through Girl Scouts taught me so much about myself and how to step outside of my comfort zone to become a confident leader. I want every girl to have access to the experiences I had.”

*-Devin Niebrugge

“Let’s make it so that any girl who dreams of going to camp is able to do so! Go Girl Scouts!!!”
